

Do not let the big telephone companies have any more power. I want my independent local ISP. The telephone service in this area STINKS because there is no local competition. Allow competition in local service--don't take it away in Long Distance or in ISP service.